

Larry Beasley C.M., B.A., M.A., L.L.D.(Hon.), F.C.I.P., R.P.P. Registered Professional Planner

Life's Work

My career has been dedicated to guiding the transformation of cities as a Professional Planner, Urban Designer, Planning Manager, and Author. For many years, in Vancouver, as deputy and then chief planner, I led a comprehensive planning service that resulted in one of the world's most liveable cities and a model for other contemporary, innovative cities. This was followed by similar efforts as a consultant in Abu Dhabi (UAE), and Dallas (Texas, USA). I have completed specific projects and advised on urban issues in Canada, the United States, the Netherlands, the Nordic countries, and Australia. I have also been a developer.

I am strongly motivated to teach young people the effective practices of planning and urban design, most notably as the 'Distinguished Practice' Professor of Planning at the University of British Columbia (recently retired, after 27 years); and, on the web, through EdX, the e-learning platform.

I also offer my services in leadership in both my local and national community and internationally. I have served several board terms on the National Capital Commission in Ottawa, the International Economic Advisory Board of Rotterdam in The Netherlands, TransLink, Greater Vancouver's integrated transportation agency, and the Green Line Transit Project in Calgary. I have served on professional boards including the Canadian Urban Institute, and the Planning Institute of British Columbia; working committees of the Canadian Institute of Planning; and on many non-profit boards.

I am an avid writer on urban issues. My first book, Ecodesign for Cities and Suburbs, with Jonathan Barnett, is available from Island Press. My most recent book, Vancouverism, is available from UBC Press. Both can also be found at Amazon. My pending book, Planning the Future of Abu Dhabi – a Canadian-Emirati Collaboration for Sustainable Urbanism, edited with Michael White, will be out from UBC Press in early-2026. I have contributed articles for the Canadian press and magazines as well as chapters for books by others.

PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE

Beasley & Associates, Planning Inc. – Consultants

T3-1500 Hornby Street, Vancouver, BC V6Z 2R1

Founding Principal | August 2006 - Present

The private consultant practice, which I founded, does a wide range of planning, organizational development and development facilitation projects both nationally and internationally. Highlights have been: founding the Urban Planning Council in Abu Dhabi, UAE, now one of the most progressive planning agencies in the Middle East; founding the Urban Design Studio with the City organization of Dallas, Texas, which is shifting the design culture of that community; working with Nordic Innovations on progressive urbanism initiatives throughout Scandinavia; crafting a completely new vision for Brampton, Ontario, which is helping to redefine sustainable suburbs in Canada; setting a new plan for Prince Rupert, British Columbia, which addresses quality growth of small cities; helping to set new directions for the Toronto, Ontario, Planning Department; transforming a harsh freeway scheme into an elegant parkway in Dallas, Texas; designing completely new national capital districts in Abu Dhabi and Moscow, Russia, and advising on evolution of Canberra, Australia's national capital; and, designing several key 'creative districts' in Vancouver, facilitating the growing ideas economy. I advise governments as well as private development companies and non-profit organizations. My consultant work has been recognized as follows.

City of Vancouver Planning Department

453 West 12th Avenue, Vancouver, B.C. V5Y 1V4

Director of Planning / Member, Development Permit Board July - October 2006

Co-Director of Planning and Director of Current Planning (formerly Central Area Planning) / Member, Development Permit Board October 1994 – June 2006

Associate Director of Planning - Central Area Planning Division January 1987 - October 1994

As Director I was the chief planner for the City, responsible for over 100 staff. Earlier, as Co-Director I was directly responsible for several teams representing about 50+ staff. Among these were: about 20 staff who were planning and managing major change, including mega-projects in Vancouver's inner city; 6 staff who handled all rezoning in the City; 10 staff who undertook urban design and processed all major development applications; and 4 heritage staff. I also co-directed the other 50+ staff in the Department. I was one of three voting Members of the Development Permit Board and I exercised all Charter Authorities of the Director of Planning. I have sat on the Urban Design Panel, the Manager's Corporate Planning Committee, the Manager's Capital Plan Committee, the Street Naming Committee and I chaired the Major Projects Steering Committee. I was the City Project Manager for the Vancouver Trade and Convention Centre Expansion Program. I was the civic planning lead in the City's 2010 Olympic bid and planning group until my retirement.

City of Vancouver Planning Department

453 West 12th Avenue, Vancouver, B.C. V5Y 1V4

Professional Planner

May 1976 - April 1985

Senior Area Planner III (for 5 years)

I was responsible for community planning field programs, planning for rapid transit, special projects, advising the City's land bank, general policy and administration. I directly supervised 10 staff and assisted in the management of a further 6 staff.

Local Area Planner II (for 4 years)

I was responsible for field planning programs in Riley Park and Hastings-Sunrise as well as implementing the Neighbourhood Improvement Program. I had special success in renovating the Riley Park Community Centre, initiating the Little Mountain Neighbourhood House, establishing the first City position on the future of the Pacific National Exhibition site, designing the City's first resident permit parking scheme around Hastings Park and reconciling local and regional interests for the new Cassiar Freeway link in eastern Vancouver. I managed separate teams of 3 staff each.

Planner I (for 1/2 year)

I worked on a variety of studies.

I had regular interaction with City Council, senior staff, other agencies, citizens, and developers. I also served on numerous occasions as the Acting Associate Director - Area Planning.

Municipality of Burnaby Planning Department

4949 Canada Way, Burnaby, B.C.

Zoning Analyst

September 1973 - January 1976

Planning Intern (for 2 years)

While in graduate school, I worked part-time, completing a plan for one local town centre as well as doing preliminary analysis of the emerging Metrotown, a regional town centre.

Zoning Analyst (for 1 year)

I was responsible for zoning analysis, strata plan evaluation, area studies, and secondary urban design.

I wrote Council reports and interacted with a wide variety of people.

Toby Russell Buckwell and Associates, Architects

1650 Alberni Street, Vancouver, B.C.

Architectural Technical Draftsperson

February 1973 - August 1973

I was involved in a variety of projects, as a draftsperson and technical assistant, taking part in field analyses and interactions with clients.

Kelly Pittelko Fritz and Forssen, Consulting Engineers

Suite 900, 425 "G" Street, Anchorage, Alaska 99501

Non-Engineering Technical Draftsperson and Junior Designer

October 1969 - October 1970

I was involved in many projects as a draftsperson and spatial designer.

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Calgary Green Line Transit Project

800 Macleod Trail SE, Calgary, Alberta

Member of the Board | January, 2021 – September, 2024

As a Board member, I was a decision maker covering all aspects of delivery of the new Green Line rapid transit project, a major expansion of the city's transit network. I chaired the Planning Committee of the Board. The Board was disbanded when governments decided to go in a different direction.

University of British Columbia, Faculty of Applied Sciences, School of Community and Regional Planning

6333 Memorial Road, Vancouver, B.C.

'Distinguished Practice' Professor of Planning | May 2006 - May 2023

Adjunct Professor and Sessional Lecturer | September 1996 – April 2006

I taught my annual course on professional practice for graduate students entering the field of community and regional planning. I have also chaired and taught three "Summer Institutes", drawing international students for a short course using Vancouver as an urban laboratory. I guest-lectured in other courses, covering occasionally for other professors, and worked with individual students (mentoring, interning and thesis support). I have also mounted an on-line course, "Ecodesign for Cities and Suburbs", on the web platform, EdX, reaching almost 20,000 students in over 160 countries. I guest lecture at other universities, examples including University of Toronto, New York University, University of Michigan, University of Washington, University of Pennsylvania, University of Waterloo, University of Saskatchewan (visiting Urbanist), Simon Fraser University, and the University of Manitoba.

Ottawa's National Capital Commission

40 Elgin Street, Ottawa, Ontario.

Member of the Board | February, 2018 – April 2023

Chair (for last twelve years) and Member of the Advisory Committee on Planning, Design and Realty | April 2000 – March, 2016

As a Board member, I was a decision maker covering all the mandated responsibilities of the National Capital Commission. I was a Member of the Board's Executive Committee. In my earlier work on the Advisory Committee, I provided input to the Board and Staff. These responsibilities covered major developments in Ottawa involving national interests, plans for Ottawa's future, and guiding of national efforts to create and manage an effective national capital. I am a Member of the Executive Committee.

TransLink

400 - 287 Nelson's Court, New Westminster, B.C.

Member of the Board | January, 2016 – December 2021

As a Board member, I was a decision maker covering all the mandated responsibilities of TransLink, British Columbia's integrated transportation agency for the Greater Vancouver region. This covers rapid transit, bus transit, special transit, transit security, major roads, major cycling routes and walking provisions. I chaired the Planning and Stakeholder Relations Committee for my last three years.

City of Rotterdam International Economic Development Advisory Board

Postbus 30230, NL – 3001 DE Rotterdam, The Netherlands.

Member of the Advisory Board | March 2010 – No specific date (approximately 2016)

In my work on the Board, I provided advice to the City government on matters related to the economic development implications of civic form and functionality. This includes attendance at Board conferences bi-annually.

Aquilini Developments Ltd.

2 nd Floor, 510 W. Hastings Street, Vancouver, B.C.

Vice-President for Development | January 2008 – May 2011

I managed several projects for new inner-city developments across Canada, including in Fredericton, NB and Kelowna, BC, as well as advised the company on development opportunities, public policy and political matters.

OTHER ADVISORY SERVICES

In addition to my primary employment activities, I also regularly provide advice to many cities and organizations. This has included (not an exhaustive list) Ontario's Harbourfront Royal Commission (on Toronto waterfront planning policy), Toronto's Planning Department (on downtown planning and waterfront transformation), the City and business community of Halifax (on inner-city visions), the City of London, Ontario (on downtown planning), the cities of Saskatoon and Regina, Saskatchewan (on downtown revitalization), the City Council of Seattle, Washington (on the "Seattle Commons" and downtown zoning), the City of Chicago, Illinois (on development regulation and urban design), the San Diego Redevelopment Authority (on downtown housing), the Philadelphia Downtown Association (on downtown visions), the City of Boise, Idaho (on inner-city planning), the City of Washington, D.C. (on waterfront neighbourhood planning and overall building heights), the City of Rotterdam, the Netherlands (visiting Urban Critic), the City of Auckland, New Zealand (on inner-city, waterfront and community development), the Planning Institute of New Zealand (on progressive planning and development management practices), the City of Shanghai, China (on planning for world stature events and contemporary urban problem solving), the City of Brisbane, Australia (on urban policy and development management), the Sydney Harbour Foreshore Authority, Australia (on waterfront planning and design), the Australia Capital Territory Government, Canberra, Australia (on inner-city revitalization), the City of Aarhus, Denmark (on urban liveability), and the City of Uppsala, Sweden (on new community development). I have also worked with the business communities in Boston, Massachusetts, Hong Kong, China, Calgary and Edmonton, Alberta, Waterloo, Ontario and other cities.

Through my affiliation with the Federation of Canadian Municipalities and the State Council Office for Restructuring of Economic Systems – People's Republic of China, my work on preservation in the City of Xian, China has been recognized with the 1999 National Honour Award from the Canadian Institute of Planners.

I have set on and/or chaired professional awards juries, including those of the City of Toronto, City of Edmonton, Waterfront Centre (Washington, D.C.), Ontario Association of Architects, Congress for the New Urbanism (Chicago, Illinois), the Vancouver Urban Development Institute, the Architectural Institute of British Columbia, and the Government of Canada Ministry of Heritage. I have also set on juries for private development RFPs in Mississauga, Ontario and Koishung City, Taiwan. In 2013 I curated the Dallas 'Connected City' Urban Design Competition.

I regularly speak all over the world on urban issues at conferences, corporate meetings, university sessions and special events, through my affiliation with the National Speakers Bureau and the International Speakers Bureau, and also freelance.

EDUCATION

University of British Columbia, School of Community and Regional Planning

Vancouver, B.C.

Master of Arts, Community & Regional Planning | September 1974 - May 1976

My major areas of study were community planning, urban design and citizens' participation. GENERAL INTERESTS

As community service, I sit on the Boards of the Arthur Erickson Foundation and the Vancouver Downtown Eastside Building Community Society. I have also sat on the Dean’s Advisory Council of the University of British Columbia Faculty of Applied Sciences and on the Boards of the Vancouver International Film Festival and the Doctor Peter Aids Foundation.

In addition, on a pro bono basis, I currently advise Vancouver’s ‘Bard on the Beach’ Shakespeare Company (facilitating a new theatre). Through the years, I have advised the Saint Paul’s Hospital Board, the Vancouver Art Gallery Relocation Committee, the Little Mountain Neighbourhood House Society, the Children’s Play Resource Centre, and the Red Door Rental Aid Society.

For pleasure, I collect old master paintings and drawings and I travel extensively.
